

Terms and conditions online donations

Ruijslaan 92
1796 AZ De Koog
+31 (0) 222 31 77 41
info@ecomare.nl
ecomare.nl

These terms and conditions concern donations made by private individuals and/or legal entities (donating party) via the website ecomare.nl.

1. Purpose of donation

Donations via the website ecomare.nl benefit Ecomare, located in De Koog (municipality Texel), registered in the trade register by number 41239214 (referred to in these conditions as 'Ecomare'). Ecomare is part of Stichting Texels Museum and holds Anbi-status and CBF certification. The purpose of this donation is to support the rescue and care of seals, birds and other animals. The income and expenses are annually accounted for in the annual report and annual account of Stichting Texels Museum.

2. Applicability

These general terms and conditions apply to all single donations conducted by a donating party to Ecomare via the website ecomare.nl. The donation is a private donation, meaning that it is not necessary to record the donation in a notarial deed.

3. Rights and obligations donating party

- 3.1 In order to make the donation, the donating party must be at least 16 years old or have received permission from a parent or guardian for the amount which is to be donated. The donating party states that this is the case by accepting these conditions.
- 3.2 The donating party will only make a donation from personal funds or from funds over which he/she has full control.
- 3.3 The donating party states that he/she will place no further conditions upon the donation other than that the donation is used for the purpose as stated in article 1.
- 3.4 After the amount corresponding with the donation has been credited to the Ecomare account, the donation can no longer be revoked.

4. Rights and obligations Ecomare

- 4.1 Online donations fully benefit Ecomare.

- 4.2 Other than the obligation to spend the donation on the purpose stated in article 1, Ecomare does not accept any other responsibilities as compensation for the donation.
- 4.3 Details provided by the donating party will be processed and stored in accordance with the 'Privacy and Cookie Statement'.

5. Liability

- 5.1 The transaction (the transfer of the donation, via iDeal or otherwise, to the Ecomare bank account) is conducted by the donating party and independent third parties (payment providers). Ecomare will not in any way be held liable for damage suffered or costs made regarding the transaction.
- 5.2 The donating party indemnifies Ecomare for damage caused by, or connection with, the donation, including acting or failing to act in violation of these terms and conditions by the donating party.

6. Final provisions

- 6.1 Dutch law applies to the donation and to these terms and conditions. Any disputes will be exclusively submitted to the competent court in Alkmaar.